

I would like to say that I only want RID Certified (levels IV and V) to do phone calls for VRS. As a deaf person I depend on interpreters with the highest qualifications. I am also a professional and I expect the same level of professionalism from my interpreters. If license and certification is required of medical doctors in a given profession the same should be done in the VRS field.